

Please do not do anything to change Wisconsin's do-not-call list. It is such a relief not to have those unwanted telemarketers calling. If a stranger walks into my house uninvited and unannounced I would be within my legal right to shoot him. If a telemarketer electronically invades my house I have no such recourse. The do-not-call list is the only way I can secure my home from these invaders.